

IMPURELY

Meaning: IMPURELY: in a manner that is flawed, unrefined, or lacking clarity and integrity.

1. She felt that the argument was constructed impurely, lacking a solid foundation.
2. The artist believed that his work conveyed emotions impurely, muddled by his own confusion.
3. In the debate, he was criticized for presenting facts impurely to support his agenda.
4. The chemical reactions occurred impurely, resulting in a product that failed to meet standards.
5. Her intentions were misunderstood, and she worried that her words were received impurely.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impurely>