

IMPURPLE

Meaning: To impurple means to tint or color something with a shade of purple, often to evoke a dreamlike or enchanting quality.

1. The artist decided to impurple the canvas, creating a dreamlike atmosphere.
2. As the sun set, the sky began to impurple, casting an enchanting glow over the landscape.
3. She chose to impurple her dress for the gala, wanting to stand out among the sea of colors.
4. The twilight hours impurpled the mountains, making them appear both majestic and mysterious.
5. In the garden, the flowers seemed to impurple as the evening light faded, transforming their hues.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impurple>