

IMPUTABLE

Meaning: Imputable means capable of being attributed or assigned to a particular cause or source.

1. The financial losses were directly imputable to the poor investment decisions made by the management team.
2. In the investigation, it became clear that the errors were imputable to a lack of proper training for the staff.
3. Her success in the project was largely imputable to her incredible work ethic and dedication.
4. The doctor stated that the patient's condition was not imputable to the medication prescribed earlier.
5. It was difficult to determine which party was imputable for the damages caused during the event.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imputable>