

IMPUTRESCIBLE

Meaning: Imputrescible (adjective): incapable of decaying or rotting; resistant to decomposition.

1. The ancient manuscripts were preserved in an imputrescible container, safeguarding them from decay.
2. In the debate about environmental sustainability, some argue that certain materials should be classified as imputrescible to promote their use.
3. The archaeologist marveled at the imputrescible artifacts discovered in the long-submerged shipwreck.
4. His fascination with inputs and outputs led him to explore the concept of imputrescible substances in chemistry.
5. She admired the imputrescible qualities of the stone, which had withstood centuries of weathering without deterioration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imputrescible>