

In another words

Meaning: The phrase 'in other words' is used to introduce a rephrasing or clarification of a statement.

1. The instructions were unclear; in other words, I needed to explain them again.
2. She was upset with the decision; in other words, she felt it was unfair.
3. The project was a failure; in other words, it did not meet our expectations.
4. He was late to the meeting; in other words, he missed the important discussion.
5. The book is a mystery; in other words, it keeps you guessing until the end.
6. The weather is unpredictable; in other words, you should bring an umbrella just in case.
7. The results were disappointing; in other words, we did not achieve our goals.
8. She is very talented; in other words, she has a natural gift for music.
9. They were excited for the trip; in other words, they could hardly wait to leave.
10. The exam was challenging; in other words, it required a lot of preparation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/in+another+words>