

In light of this

Meaning: The phrase 'in light of this' is used to indicate that something is being considered or understood based on previously mentioned information or circumstances.

1. In light of this new evidence, we should reconsider our initial conclusions.
2. The team decided to adjust their strategy in light of this recent feedback from the client.
3. In light of this development, the company will postpone the product launch.
4. The teacher modified the lesson plan in light of this student's unique needs.
5. In light of this incident, the school has implemented new safety measures.
6. The government has proposed new regulations in light of this environmental crisis.
7. In light of this research, we can better understand the impact of climate change.
8. The committee will meet again in light of this unexpected budget shortfall.
9. In light of this information, I believe we should take a different approach.
10. The author revised the manuscript in light of this critical feedback from peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/in+light+of+this>