

INACCORDANT

Meaning: INACCORDANT: not in agreement or harmony; conflicting or inconsistent with something else.

1. The report highlighted several findings that were inconcordant with previous research.
2. Her views on the subject were inconcordant with the established norms of the community.
3. The band's latest album features an inconcordant mix of genres that surprised many fans.
4. His behavior at the meeting was inconcordant with the professional image he usually projects.
5. Their opinions on the matter remained inconcordant, leading to a heated debate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inaccordant>