

INADEQUATION

Meaning: Inadequation refers to the state of being insufficient or lacking in quality or quantity to meet a particular need or standard.

1. The inadequation of resources in the project led to significant delays.
2. Her insistence on perfection highlighted the inadequation of the team's previous efforts.
3. The inadequation of the policy to address the community's needs became evident during the meeting.
4. They criticized the inadequation of the study's methodology, which undermined its findings.
5. Despite their best efforts, the inadequation of their preparation was apparent during the presentation.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inadequation>