

INADVISABLE

Meaning: Inadvisable means not recommended or unwise, especially in the context of making decisions or taking actions that could lead to negative consequences.

1. It is inadvisable to make significant financial decisions without consulting an expert.
2. Driving without a seatbelt is not only dangerous but also inadvisable.
3. Given the current weather conditions, hiking the mountain trail is inadvisable.
4. Attempting to fix the electrical issue yourself is inadvisable and could lead to serious injuries.
5. Taking on too many responsibilities at once can be inadvisable for your mental health.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inadvisable>