

INALIENABLENESS

Meaning: Inalienableness refers to the quality of being unable to be surrendered, transferred, or taken away, particularly in the context of fundamental rights or certain legal protections.

1. The concept of inalienableness is fundamental to human rights, asserting that these rights cannot be surrendered or transferred.
2. In discussions of property law, the inalienableness of certain rights protects individuals from exploitation.
3. Philosophers often debate the inalienableness of personal identity, arguing that it is essential to the self.
4. Inalienableness is a key principle in moral philosophy, emphasizing that certain values are inherent to human dignity.
5. The inalienableness of cultural heritage is vital for preserving the identity of indigenous communities around the world.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inalienableness>