

INALIENABLY

Meaning: Inalienably means in a manner that cannot be taken away or transferred, often referring to rights or inherent qualities.

1. Her rights were inalienably guaranteed by the constitution.
2. The bond between them was inalienably strong, unaffected by time or distance.
3. Freedom and dignity are inalienably tied to the human experience.
4. The land was inalienably owned by the indigenous people for generations.
5. His passion for art was inalienably linked to his identity as a person.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inalienably>