

INARTICULATION

Meaning: Inarticulation refers to the inability to express thoughts or ideas clearly and effectively, often resulting in confusion or misunderstanding.

1. His inarticulation during the presentation left the audience confused about his main points.
2. The child's inarticulation made it difficult for her parents to understand her needs.
3. Despite his inarticulation, his passion for the subject was evident in his expressions.
4. Inarticulation can often stem from nervousness, especially in public speaking situations.
5. The poet's inarticulation was a deliberate choice, emphasizing the chaos of her emotions.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inarticulation>