

INBLOWN

Meaning: Inblown (adjective): swept or blown inward, typically referring to leaves or air being carried inside by the wind.

1. The inblown leaves danced through the air like little kites.
2. With an inblown gust of wind, the door creaked ominously open.
3. The aroma of freshly baked bread was inblown from the nearby bakery.
4. Her hair was tousled and inblown by the sudden storm that swept through the park.
5. The inblown whispers of secrets filled the quiet room, making everyone lean in closer.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inblown>