

INBURST

Meaning: Inburst: a sudden and intense emergence or outpouring of emotion or energy.

1. The sudden inburst of laughter from the audience filled the quiet theater.
2. After weeks of anticipation, an inburst of excitement surged through the crowd as the concert began.
3. The inburst of inspiration struck her in the middle of the night, prompting her to write.
4. An inburst of emotion overwhelmed him during the heartfelt speech at the wedding.
5. The inburst of sunlight through the trees created a beautiful pattern on the forest floor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inburst>