

INCIRCUMSPECTION

Meaning: Incircumspection refers to a lack of careful consideration or caution in judgment or decision-making.

1. The committee's incircumspection led to several overlooked details in the final report.
2. Her incircumspection in decision-making often resulted in missed opportunities for growth.
3. Despite the incircumspection displayed by the team, they managed to deliver the project on time.
4. The lawyer criticized the incircumspection of the witnesses during their testimonies.
5. In matters of great importance, incircumspection can be more damaging than making a mistake.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incircumspection>