

INCLIP

Meaning: Inclip (verb): to trim or cut away excess material or sections to achieve a more compact or fitting form.

1. The editor decided to inclip the excessive sections of the manuscript to tighten the narrative.
2. In order to fit the document into the binder, I had to inclip the corners carefully.
3. To ensure the photos stayed in place, she chose to inclip them rather than using traditional glue.
4. The teacher asked the students to inclip their worksheets into their folders for better organization.
5. He demonstrated how to inclip the fabric pieces together before sewing them.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inclip>