

INCOACH

Meaning: Incoach (verb): To train or mentor individuals in a specific skill or area, often through guidance and support.

1. The team's strategy to incoach new players proved effective during the season.
2. To incoach the students, the teacher implemented innovative learning techniques.
3. He aimed to incoach his colleagues on the importance of team collaboration.
4. The workshop was designed to incoach participants in advanced communication skills.
5. Her ability to incoach others transformed the dynamics of the project group.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incoach>