

INCOERCIBLE

Meaning: Incoercible: impossible to be forced or compelled to change one's beliefs, actions, or creativity.

1. The artist's vision was so incoercible that no amount of criticism could sway her creativity.
2. Incoercible principles of justice guided the activist in her relentless pursuit of equality.
3. Despite the pressure to conform, his incoercible spirit shone through in every decision he made.
4. The team celebrated their incoercible resolve to stand firm against any external challenges.
5. Her incoercible laughter filled the room, infectious and impossible to ignore.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incoercible>