

INCOINCIDENT

Meaning: INCOINCIDENT: occurring independently and without any connection or correlation.

1. The two events were entirely incoincident, occurring miles apart and without any correlation.
2. Her sudden departure and the storm's arrival seemed incoincident, yet they both changed the course of our day.
3. Incoincident with the project's deadline, the team received unexpected feedback that required significant revisions.
4. The artist's inspiration struck at an incoincident moment, leading to a masterpiece created in a single night.
5. Their lives were so different and incoincident that they hardly recognized the similarities in their struggles.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incoincident>