

INCOMBUSTIBILITY

Meaning: Incombustibility is the property of a material that prevents it from catching fire or burning.

1. The fire department is particularly interested in the incombustibility of building materials when designing new structures.
2. Incombustibility is a crucial property for materials used in fire-prone areas to ensure safety and durability.
3. The scientist conducted experiments to test the incombustibility of various substances under extreme heat conditions.
4. Engineers often select products based on their incombustibility to minimize risks in industrial applications.
5. The new insulation features exceptional incombustibility, making it ideal for high-temperature environments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incombustibility>