

INCOMMODEMENT

Meaning: Incomodemement: a state of inconvenience or disruption that hinders normal activity or concentration.

1. The incomodement caused by the construction noise made it difficult for her to concentrate on her work.
2. His frequent tardiness became an incomodement to the entire team, disrupting their workflow.
3. Despite the incomodement of traveling during peak hours, she always managed to arrive on time.
4. The long meeting turned into an incomodement rather than a productive discussion.
5. She expressed her incomodement with the changes to the schedule, feeling they were unfairly implemented.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incommodement>