

INCOMMUNICABILITY

Meaning: Incommunicability refers to the inability to express or communicate thoughts, feelings, or ideas effectively.

1. The incommunicability of her thoughts left him feeling more isolated than ever.
2. In the realm of philosophy, incommunicability can pose significant challenges to understanding.
3. Their incommunicability during the argument created an impasse that neither could overcome.
4. The artist expressed a profound sense of incommunicability in his latest work, capturing emotions that words could not convey.
5. Despite their shared experiences, the incommunicability of their feelings created a barrier between them.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incommunicability>