

INCOMMUNICABLE

Meaning: Incommunicable: unable to be expressed or communicated effectively to others.

1. The artist's emotions were incommunicable, making it difficult for others to understand her work.
2. Despite their best efforts, the team felt an incommunicable sense of loss after the tragedy.
3. His thoughts remained incommunicable, locked away in a part of his mind he could not access.
4. The isolation of the mountain village was so profound that it created an incommunicable gap between its residents and the outside world.
5. Even in a room full of friends, she experienced an incommunicable loneliness that weighed heavily on her heart.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incommunicable>