

INCOMMUNICATING

Meaning: Incommunicating: unable or unwilling to communicate or express thoughts and feelings.

1. The patient remained incommunicating, leaving the doctors puzzled about his condition.
2. Despite the team's efforts, the diplomat was incommunicating during the crisis, hindering negotiations.
3. Her incommunicating demeanor made it challenging for her friends to understand her feelings.
4. The artist's incommunicating style provoked a range of interpretations from the audience.
5. In the midst of the chaos, his incommunicating silence spoke volumes about his distress.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incommunicating>