

INCOMPATIBLE

Meaning: INCOMPATIBLE: unable to exist or work together due to fundamental differences or conflicts.

1. The software update made the old hardware incompatible with the new system.
2. Their differing values ultimately rendered their relationship incompatible.
3. Many medications can be incompatible, leading to serious side effects if taken together.
4. Her busy schedule was incompatible with the demands of the part-time job she wanted.
5. The two technologies are incompatible, preventing them from working together effectively.
6. Their lifestyles proved to be incompatible, leading to frequent arguments.
7. The new software was incompatible with the older operating system.
8. Despite their best efforts, the two teams were ultimately incompatible in their working styles.
9. She realized that their values were incompatible, making a long-term relationship unfeasible.
10. The couple's differing views on parenting were incompatible, causing tension in their marriage.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incompatible>