

INCOMPREHENSION

Meaning: Incomprehension refers to a lack of understanding or inability to grasp a concept or idea.

1. Her face was a mask of incomprehension as she tried to grasp the complex theory.
2. The teacher noticed a wave of incomprehension wash over the students during the difficult lesson.
3. Incomprehension can often lead to frustration, especially in challenging discussions.
4. Despite his attempts to explain, there was only incomprehension in her eyes.
5. The sudden shift in the conversation left him in a state of deep incomprehension.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incomprehension>