

INCONCEIVABLE

Meaning: Inconceivable: impossible to comprehend or believe; unimaginable.

1. It was inconceivable that they would win the championship after such a poor start to the season.
2. The idea of living without music seemed inconceivable to her.
3. His sudden departure from the company was inconceivable to everyone who knew him.
4. Inconceivable as it may seem, the tiny village was once a bustling trade hub.
5. The thought of them not being friends anymore was simply inconceivable to her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inconceivable>