

INCONCINNOUS

Meaning: Inconcinous: lacking harmony or compatibility; discordant or out of place in a particular context.

1. The decor in the restaurant felt inconcinous, clashing with the modern architecture of the building.
2. During the meeting, her inconcinous comments distracted everyone from the main topic at hand.
3. He wore an inconcinous expression, as if he had just stepped out of a different era.
4. The inconcinous placement of the furniture made the room feel cramped and uncomfortable.
5. Their inconcinous opinions on the project led to a confusing and unproductive discussion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inconcinuous>