

INCONCLUSIVE

Meaning: Inconclusive: not leading to a firm conclusion or definitive result; uncertain or unresolved.

1. The results of the study were inconclusive, leaving researchers with more questions than answers.
2. Despite hours of discussion, the meeting ended in an inconclusive debate about the new policy.
3. Her attempts to resolve the conflict were ultimately inconclusive, as both sides remained stubbornly entrenched.
4. The evidence presented in court was deemed inconclusive, leading to the defendant's acquittal.
5. After reviewing the data, the scientists concluded that their findings were inconclusive and required further investigation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inconclusive>