

UNCONDITIONAL

Meaning: Unconditional means not subject to any conditions or limitations; absolute and unwavering in nature.

1. Her love for her children was unconditional, never wavering regardless of their mistakes.
2. The team's success was built on the unconditional support of their fans, who stood by them through thick and thin.
3. He offered her unconditional friendship, assuring her that he would always be there in times of need.
4. Many believe that animals can provide people with unconditional affection that helps reduce stress and anxiety.
5. The organization's mission is to provide unconditional assistance to those affected by natural disasters, regardless of their background.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unconditional>