

INCONFORM

Meaning: Inconform refers to a person who does not conform to established customs, norms, or expectations, often challenging the status quo.

1. His decision to challenge the status quo made him an inconform figure in the traditional community.
2. Many artists are often seen as inconform individuals, breaking societal norms through their work.
3. The inconform nature of her beliefs led to heated debates within the organization.
4. Inconform attitudes can sometimes inspire innovation and progress, but they may also lead to conflict.
5. She embraced her inconform lifestyle, relishing the freedom it brought her in a conformist society.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inconform>