

INCONFUSION

Meaning: Inconfusion: a state of being perplexed or unable to understand, often resulting in uncertainty or confusion.

1. Her expression was one of pure inconfusion as she tried to comprehend the complex instructions.
2. The meeting ended in inconfusion, with attendees unsure of the project's next steps.
3. Inconfusion reigned among the team when the new policies were announced without prior notice.
4. He looked at the map in inconfusion, unable to make sense of the unfamiliar terrain.
5. The constant changes in the schedule left everyone in a state of inconfusion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inconfusion>