

INCONFUTABLE

Meaning: Inconfutable: impossible to deny or disprove; undeniably true.

1. The evidence presented in the trial was so compelling that it became inconfutable.
2. Her inconfutable logic convinced even the most skeptical members of the audience.
3. The scientist's research provided inconfutable proof of climate change.
4. Inconfutable facts about the case led the jury to a unanimous decision.
5. His inconfutable achievements in the field earned him widespread recognition and respect.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inconfutable>