

INCONSOLABLE

Meaning: Inconsolable: unable to be comforted or soothed, especially due to deep grief or sorrow.

1. After losing her beloved pet, she was inconsolable for days.
2. The news of his unexpected departure left his family feeling inconsolable.
3. Despite the support of her friends, she remained inconsolable in her grief.
4. He tried to comfort her, but the pain was so deep that she seemed inconsolable.
5. The child's inconsolable cries echoed through the quiet house, breaking the silence.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inconsolable>