

INCONSONANT

Meaning: Inconsonant means not in harmony or agreement; inconsistent or incompatible.

1. The committee's decision was inconsonant with the community's needs and expectations.
2. His actions were inconsonant with the values he publicly espoused.
3. The findings of the study were inconsonant with previous research, leading to further investigation.
4. Their disagreement was inconsonant, revealing a deeper ideological rift between the two factions.
5. The melody was inconsonant with the lyrics, creating a jarring listening experience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inconsonant>