

INCONTROVERTIBLE

Meaning: INCONTROVERTIBLE: Impossible to dispute or deny; indisputable.

1. The evidence presented in court was incontrovertible, leaving no doubt in the jury's mind.
2. Her passion for the project was evident, and her success provided incontrovertible proof of her abilities.
3. Despite various theories, the scientist maintained that the results of the experiment were incontrovertible.
4. For many historians, the documents found in the archives were incontrovertible evidence of the event's occurrence.
5. His expertise in the field was backed by an incontrovertible record of achievements and contributions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incontrovertible>