

INCONVERSABLE

Meaning: Inconversable: impossible to discuss or negotiate due to irreconcilable differences.

1. The atmosphere in the room became inconversable as tensions rose between the two parties.
2. After hours of discussion, it became clear that their differences were inconversable, leaving both sides frustrated.
3. Her stubbornness made the negotiation process feel inconversable, as she refused to consider any compromises.
4. The topics they wanted to discuss were so divergent that the conversation turned inconversable within minutes.
5. He felt that the cultural divide created an inconversable barrier in their attempts to communicate effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inconversable>