

INCONVINICIBLE

Meaning: Incapable of being convinced or persuaded.

1. Her arguments were so well-crafted that they became almost inconvinicible to the opposing side.
2. Despite the evidence presented, his belief remained inconvinicible to all those around him.
3. The team's performance was inconvinicible, leaving the audience in awe of their talent.
4. Even after the explanation, his doubts remained inconvinicible, rooted in his past experiences.
5. The scientist's findings were inconvinicible, changing the way researchers approached the problem.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inconvinicible>