

INCOORDINATION

Meaning: Incoordination refers to a lack of effective organization or cooperation among individuals or groups, resulting in disarray or inefficiency.

1. The team's failure to meet deadlines was largely due to a lack of incoordination among its members.
2. Incoordination in the execution of the project led to several costly mistakes.
3. She noticed a troubling incoordination in the way the departments communicated with each other.
4. The dance performance was marred by incoordination, as the dancers struggled to sync their movements.
5. To improve productivity, the manager emphasized the importance of addressing incoordination in workflow processes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incordination>