

INCORRESPONDING

Meaning: Incorresponding: not corresponding or not in agreement; mismatched or inconsistent.

1. The findings from the two studies were found to be incorresponding, leading to confusion among researchers.
2. Her emotions seemed incorresponding with the joyful occasion, leaving her friends concerned.
3. The data sets were incorresponding, making it difficult to draw any meaningful conclusions.
4. Their perspectives on the issue were incorresponding, highlighting the need for a deeper discussion.
5. Incorporating feedback from both teams revealed several incorresponding opinions that needed to be addressed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incorresponding>