

INCORRIGIBLENESS

Meaning: Incorrigibleness refers to the quality of being unable to be corrected, reformed, or improved, often in relation to behavior or habits.

1. Her incorrigibleness was both a source of frustration and admiration among her friends.
2. Despite numerous attempts to reform his behavior, his incorrigibleness remained unchanged.
3. The teacher eventually accepted the student's incorrigibleness as part of his charm.
4. In the face of his incorrigibleness, she realized that some people are simply unyielding.
5. The community struggled to deal with the incorrigibleness of the youth, who resisted all guidance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incorrigibleness>