

INCORRODIBLE

Meaning: Incorrodible: resistant to corrosion or deterioration, particularly in materials that maintain their integrity over time.

1. The ancient statue was made of an incorrodible material, ensuring its preservation for centuries.
2. Scientists are researching new alloys that are both lightweight and incorrodible for aerospace applications.
3. Despite years of exposure to harsh weather, the incorrodible surface of the bridge remained flawless and safe.
4. The concept of an incorrodible substance has fascinated chemists and materials scientists for decades.
5. In her art, she often used incorrodible metals to symbolize the enduring nature of love and memory.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incorrodible>