

INCORRUPT

Meaning: Incorrupt: Adjective describing someone or something that is morally untainted, honest, and unable to be bribed or influenced by corruption.

1. The incorrupt judges upheld the integrity of the legal system.
2. In a world filled with deceit, she remained incorrupt and true to her principles.
3. The incorrupt nature of the ancient manuscript fascinated historians for decades.
4. His incorrupt character earned him the respect and admiration of his peers.
5. They sought an incorrupt leader to guide the nation towards a brighter future.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incorrupt>