

INCORRUPTIBILITY

Meaning: Incorruptibility refers to the quality of being incapable of being morally corrupted or compromised, often associated with integrity and ethical steadfastness.

1. The judge's reputation for incorruptibility made him a respected figure in the community.
2. In an age of scandals and deceit, her incorruptibility stood out as a beacon of hope.
3. The leader's incorruptibility inspired trust among the citizens and encouraged civic engagement.
4. Philosophers have long debated the nature of incorruptibility as a virtue in human character.
5. Incorruptibility is often seen as a hallmark of true integrity in both personal and professional life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incorruptibility>