

INCORRUPTIBLE

Meaning: Incorruptible: incapable of being morally compromised or influenced by bribery or corruption; steadfastly honest and principled.

1. The judge was known for his incorruptible integrity, always prioritizing justice over personal gain.
2. In a world filled with temptation, her incorruptible character stood as a beacon of hope for others.
3. The incorruptible principles of the organization attracted supporters who valued honesty and transparency.
4. His incorruptible spirit inspired those around him to uphold their own moral values in challenging times.
5. They admired her incorruptible dedication to the cause, never wavering in her commitment to fairness.
6. The judge was known for his incorruptible nature, always prioritizing justice over personal gain.
7. In a world filled with temptation, she remained incorruptible, steadfast in her values and principles.
8. The incorruptible integrity of the whistleblower inspired others to speak out against corruption.
9. He regarded her incorruptible spirit as a beacon of hope in a society riddled with dishonesty.
10. Legends spoke of an incorruptible hero who fought tirelessly for the oppressed without seeking glory or wealth.
11. Her incorruptible nature made her the ideal candidate for the position of judge.
12. The leader's incorruptible integrity inspired trust among the citizens.
13. Despite the temptations of power, he remained incorruptible throughout his career.
14. The story depicted an incorruptible hero who stood against all forms of injustice.
15. In a world filled with greed, she was a beacon of incorruptible virtue.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incorruptible>