

INCORRUPTION

Meaning: Incorruption refers to the state of being free from corruption, dishonesty, or moral decay, often associated with integrity and ethical conduct.

1. The principle of incorruption is vital in maintaining the integrity of our institutions.
2. Many cultures value incorruption as a sign of true leadership and moral strength.
3. Incorruption in governance is often seen as the cornerstone of a thriving democracy.
4. The movement sought to promote incorruption across all levels of society, emphasizing transparency.
5. Her unwavering commitment to incorruption inspired others to follow her example in public service.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incorruption>