

INCRIMINATING

Meaning: Incriminating refers to evidence or information that suggests someone's involvement in a crime or wrongdoing.

1. The attorney presented incriminating evidence that led to the defendant's arrest.
2. She found incriminating messages on his phone that suggested he was involved in the crime.
3. The documentary revealed incriminating footage that changed public opinion about the politician.
4. Incriminating documents were discovered in the suspect's office, linking him to the fraud scheme.
5. The police collected incriminating testimonies from witnesses who saw the incident unfold.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incriminating>