

INCRIMINATION

Meaning: Incrimination refers to the act of implicating someone in a crime or the process of providing evidence that suggests their involvement in illegal activity.

1. The incrimination of the suspect was primarily based on the evidence presented during the trial.
2. Her silence during the interrogation raised suspicions of potential self-incrimination.
3. The lawyer argued that the new evidence did not support any form of incrimination.
4. Incrimination can often lead to a plea deal that might benefit the accused.
5. He worried that his testimony would lead to the incrimination of his close friend.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incrimination>