

INCUPLABLENESS

Meaning: Inculpableness refers to the state of being not guilty or free from blame or responsibility for a wrongdoing.

1. The lawyer argued for her client's inculpableness, presenting evidence that proved a lack of intent.
2. Inculpableness became a central theme in the debate over moral responsibility in the case.
3. Despite the overwhelming evidence, the defendant's inculpableness remained a topic of heated discussion.
4. Philosophers often explore the concept of inculpableness when discussing free will and determinism.
5. The judge ruled in favor of the defendant, citing their inculpableness due to mental incapacity at the time of the offense.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inculpableness>