

INCU LPATING

Meaning: Inculpating refers to the act of implicating or accusing someone of a crime or wrongdoing.

1. The evidence presented was enough for the jury to start inculpating the defendant.
2. Her testimony was so compelling that it seemed to be inculpating him in the crime.
3. Inculpating someone without solid proof can lead to serious legal consequences.
4. The detectives focused on inculpating the suspect by gathering more incriminating evidence.
5. His intention was not to harm but rather to avoid inculpating himself in the ongoing investigation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inculpating>